

Autumn term

worry
tree

Write a worry on each leaf, cut them out and place them on this tree. By naming our worries, we let other people know about them and together, we can find ways to make them disappear. As we move through autumn, watch your worry leaves fall away.

I'm worried about...

being late

